

GIBSONVILLE GARDEN RAILROAD (G.G.R.R.)

220 E. Main St. Gibsonville North Carolina
FREE: Open EVERY SAT. 9-Noon from April to December.

Largest outdoor and most complex public garden railroad in North Carolina. Over 2400 feet of track with seventeen different layouts, plus trams, planes, incline trams, bridges, buildings, and lighthouses.

Visitors are welcome to bring and run their own G-scale trains or watch ours. First come, first on the track, but everyone will get a chance to run.

Each month has a different theme such as: Steam trains, Southern Railroad, Thomas & James the Train, circus, military, gold rush, European, future trains, 1940-1960 era, charity fund raisers, and more.